

I love staying with my ^{foster} ~~foster~~ parents because, they give me everything I need. Love, shelter, food, accessories, education and family. They had also teach me manners, basic respect, good deeds and many more. They care for me, they always ensure that im alright and doing well in school. They allow me to join my sports and other activities. They always remind me not to do a bad ~~st~~ things, they teach me how to do all the good things. They teached me how to be a good guy, independent, successful guy, full of values and, caring to ~~th~~ others. She gives me encouragement when I have no self confidence. She always tell me to help people when they are in trouble, And one day, if we are in trouble people will helpus back. I love the way that im living with my foster family, I am glad to be in this family. I will never forget and be separated from this family.
