

WHAT IF THE FUTURE FELT LESS UNCERTAIN?

For persons with disabilities and their families, planning ahead should not mean “we’ll figure it out later.”

We are making every stage of life easier to navigate.

WHAT IF YOU COULD PLAN BEFORE LIFE CHANGES?

Future Care Planning services will support families to plan ahead for major life transitions, building on the Individual Transition Plan for each SPED student.

WHAT IF A JOB WAS JUST THE START?

More support to prepare for work, find a job, and thrive in the workplace:

Employment planning support

Career guidance before graduation and at key career transition points

Longer job support

Beyond the initial period of employment, with additional support when needed

Better preparation for work

- More skills-building, career guidance, and work exposure opportunities
- More accessible, affordable training with better learner support

WHAT IF HIRING PERSONS WITH DISABILITIES WAS MADE EASIER?

More support to redesign roles, hire well, and make it last.

Make workplaces accessible

Funding to build accessible workplaces through the enhanced Enabling Employment Grant

Hire with confidence

Job redesign and workplace accommodation advice through the new Employment Support Office

More incentives for hiring persons with disabilities

through the enhanced Enabling Employment Credit

Grow an inclusive business

Funding for enterprises that provide supported employment through the Supported-Enterprise Enabling Grant

A MORE ASSURED FUTURE STARTS HERE.

Proactive planning. Affordable support closer to home. Employment opportunities that build on individual strengths.

So persons with disabilities and their families can navigate each stage of life with greater assurance.
