Scholarship Categories

There are three categories of scholarships awarded:

1. Social Service Scholarship

The Social Service Scholarship was established in 2002 with the Professional Capability Grant administered by the National Council of Social Service (NCSS). The scholarship aims to groom talents for the sector and is awarded to exceptional individuals for studies in Social Work, Psychology, Occupational Therapy, Physiotherapy and Speech and Language Therapy. This year, 39 individuals were awarded the NCSS Social Service Scholarship.

2. MSF-Local Merit Scholarship (LMS) and

3. MSF-Singapore Government Scholarship (SGS)

MSF scholarships are awarded to outstanding students who are keen to pursue challenging but fulfilling careers with MSF, as well as to contribute to the nation as part of the Public Service. The Singapore Government Scholarship scholars are sponsored for overseas/local undergraduate studies while the Local Merit Scholarship scholars are sponsored for local undergraduate studies. This year, two individuals were awarded the Local Merit Scholarship and three individuals were awarded the Singapore Government Scholarship.
