

Disclaimer Notice from Disclaiming Donee to Donor and Other Donee(s) (if any)

DN2

NOTE TO DISCLAIMING DONEE / REPLACEMENT DONEE

1. This Disclaimer Notice to Donor and Other Donees (if any) (DN2) serves to give notice to the Donor and any remaining Donee(s) appointed that you wish to disclaim your appointment as a Donee/Replacement Donee of a Lasting Power of Attorney (LPA). Complete and send DN2 to the Donor and every other Donee(s) (if any) if you wish to disclaim your appointment, before submitting the Disclaimer Notice to Public Guardian (DN1) to the Public Guardian. Where the Public Guardian accepts your disclaimer as the sole Donee or a joint Donee, with no Replacement Donee(s) appointed, (i) the instrument executed by the Donor with a view to create a Lasting Power of Attorney (LPA instrument) will not be registered; or (ii) where the LPA has been registered, it will be cancelled.
2. To give notice to the Donor and any remaining Donee(s), you must send the completed and signed DN2 to the Donor and every other Donee (if any) by delivering it personally, sending it by post to the last postal address<sup>1</sup> or, if the postal address is not known, to the last email address<sup>2</sup>.
3. It is important that you understand that after disclaiming your appointment as a Donee/Replacement Donee, you will not have the authority to make decisions or act for the Donor if the Donor loses mental capacity.

A. NOTICE TO DONOR AND ANY REMAINING DONEE(S) OF MY INTENTION TO DISCLAIM MY APPOINTMENT AS DONEE/REPLACEMENT DONEE

I hereby wish to disclaim my appointment as a Donee/Replacement Donee. I understand the implication that I will not have the authority to make decisions or act for the Donor if the Donor loses mental capacity.
