

Looking for funds to kick-start a project?

If your project helps meet a service gap or emerging need of low-income families, you can apply for seed funding from the ComCare Social Support Projects Fund (CSPF).

Quick Facts

- ✔ Launched in July 2005.
- ✔ Up to 50% project funding for a maximum of 3 years, capped at $300,000.
- ✔ 21 projects approved and $4.1 million disbursed to date.

A Successful CSPF Project

The Bridging Programme for Pre-School Children was first piloted to provide intensive coaching to prepare disadvantaged pre-schoolers for primary school. Today, it is a national programme helmed by the Self-Help Groups (the Chinese Development Assistance Council, Eurasian Association, Singapore Indian Development Association and Yayasan MENDAKI) and funded by the Ministry of Education.

Who can apply for CSPF?

Voluntary welfare, grassroots and community-based organizations registered as legal entities. Application forms can be downloaded from www.mcys.gov.sg/ComCare.