

To : All Operators, Supervisors and Principals of Student Care Centres

Copyrighted movies/documentaries/cartoons are intended for private, domestic use only as per the warning which appears before the film. Videos and DVDs shown anywhere outside of one's home qualify as a 'public performance', and will be deemed as an infringement of the Singapore Copyright Act. We would like to advise student care centres to obtain the necessary licences if you should screen copyrighted movies/documentaries/cartoons within your centre premises.

2 We seek your cooperation to ensure that student care centres' practices are in compliance with the law. You may wish to refer to the Intellectual Property of Singapore (IPOS) website at <http://www.ipos.gov.sg/AboutIP/TypesofIPWhatisIntellectualProperty/Whatiscopyright.aspx> for more information on copyright issues.

3 You may contact Motion Picture Licensing Company (Singapore) Private Limited at sginfo@mplc.com , Tel: 63920152 or visit their website at <http://www.mplc.sg> to learn more about licensing.

Yours faithfully,
